

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

CLARENCE D. JOHNSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

CDC COVID 19 CRIMES, et al.,

Defendants.

Cause No. C21-0572RSL

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On May 24, 2021, plaintiff was directed to file an amended complaint which clearly and concisely identifies the acts of which each named defendant is accused and how those acts violated plaintiff's legal rights. No amended pleading was filed within the time allowed. The above-captioned matter is therefore DISMISSED without prejudice for failure to allege a plausible claim for relief.¹

Dated this 19th day of July, 2021.

Robert S. Lasnik
United States District Judge

¹ Plaintiff's motion for appointment of counsel (Dkt. # 8), "motion for common access" (Dkt. # 9 at 1), "motion to squash" (Dkt. # 9 at 2), and motion to seal (Dkt. # 9 at 3) are DENIED.
